ABOUT US

The collaboration between H Talent Management and Flavour Management has forged an exceptional alliance, which has brought together two entities, creating a partnership that combines their strengths and expertise.

Our joint venture offers a boutique management approach backed by a proven track record of excellence and earning the trust of our valued brand partners and family of talented chefs.

At the heart of our services lies the creation of unparalleled VIP events showcasing our chefs and experts, delivering a wealth of experience. From social media partnerships with renowned brands to hosting TV series, regular appearances on cooking shows, and brand commercials, we ensure maximum exposure and engagement. Additionally, we specialise in curating pop-up restaurants, arranging guest chef appearances, orchestrating participation in global food festivals, and organising exclusive soirées aboard private yachts across the globe.

WHAT WE DO

Our goal is to provide experiences that go above and beyond what our clients expect.

We strive for excellence by ensuring an outstanding experience. Our chef, events team, and management collaborate closely, paying attention to the details. We meticulously follow the brief and fully grasp every aspect of the project, event, or partnership.

We organise experiences tailored to enhance your guest's enjoyment, delight or branding efforts.

Securing one of our celebrity chefs or food and drink personalities for your project will leave guests and audiences with an exciting experience and a lasting impression. Whether you have a celebrity chef in mind or seek ideas and inspiration, our team is here to assist in finding the match, by thinking outside of the box.
